

DIRECTIONS TO UNDERSIEGE PAINTBALL

FROM NEWCASTLE: It's best to come up Lobley Hill, through Streetgate and turn onto the A6076 following it through Stanley and Maiden Law down into Lanchester. Turn left onto the A691 then take the B6296 turn off (right) at the Kings Head. Continue on this road through Satley before turning left onto the A68 at the Brown Horse pub Tow Law. Follow the A68 through Tow Law and carry on along the A68 towards Darlington. About a mile from Tow Law, you'll pass two entrances on your right for Helme Park Hall. After the second turning for Helme Park Hall, the turning for Undersiege Paintball is the next turning on your right, opposite a big lay-by on your left. Turn right here and carry on down the farm track (Castlewood Farm) until you see the sign and the car park for Undersiege Paintball.

FROM DURHAM: Take the A690 towards Meadowfield and carry on through Willington then through Crook. Two miles from Crook you will reach a large roundabout. Take the 3rd exit (signposted A68 Corbridge) towards Tow Law, 800 yards after the roundabout you will see a lay-by on your right and a farm track on your left. Turn LEFT here and follow the farm track down to the Undersiege Paintball sign and the car park.

FROM SCOTCH CORNER: Follow the A1 northbound, then take the A68 turn off. Follow the A68 through West Auckland and eventually into Fir Tree. About 1 mile past Fir Tree you will reach a large roundabout. Take the 2nd exit along the A68 towards Tow Law & Corbridge. 800 yards after the roundabout you will see a lay-by on your right and a farm track on your left. Turn LEFT here and follow the farm track down to the Undersiege Paintball sign and the car park.
